ABOUT THE SONG

"Legends" is a heartfelt country song about finding your voice through the artists who came before you. Written and recorded by West Tennessee singer/songwriter Ella Gracen, the song honors the women and men who shaped country music — Dolly, Loretta, Johnny, Willie — and the way their songs turn heartbreak and hard days into something that lasts.

ARTIST BACKGROUND

Ella Gracen is a 16-year-old singer/songwriter raised on vinyl, Gospel harmonies, and the storytelling traditions of classic country music. She began writing songs at 13 and has already penned more than 20 originals, drawing inspiration from the emotional honesty of early Taylor Swift and the modern country voices of Megan Moroney and Lainey Wilson — while staying grounded in the lineage of country's great storytellers.
