- Strong female vocal presence with broad listener appeal

ABOUT THE SONG

Ella Gracen's take on "Photograph" reimagines Ed Sheeran's global hit through a warm, contemporary country lens. Drawn to the song's themes of memory, love, and holding on to moments that matter, Ella delivers the lyrics with a clarity and sincerity that feels deeply personal. Her version leans into storytelling and emotion, trading polished pop production for a more intimate, melody-forward sound that lets the heart of the song shine.

ARTIST BACKGROUND

Ella Gracen is a 16-year-old singer/songwriter raised on vinyl records, Gospel harmonies, and the storytelling spirit of classic country. She started writing at 13 and has already released 18 original songs, drawn to music that says the things people sometimes don't know how to say out loud. Inspired by early Taylor Swift, Megan Moroney, and Lainey Wilson, Ella blends emotional honesty with a modern country feel while staying rooted in the genre's storytelling tradition.
